CORPORATE GIFTING COLLECTION · 2026

Gifts that carry your name well.

Premium handcrafted Indian sweets in boxes that carry your brand
— for employees, clients and every festival in between.

Handcrafted Traditions. Crafted for Celebrations.

A gifting partner, not a vendor.

Mithaiwallah makes a focused collection of milk sweets in Prayagraj the traditional way — slowly, by hand — and presents them with the finish of a luxury gift. Our corporate team plans with yours weeks ahead, so the festival week is calm on your side.

Employee Gifts

Hundreds of identical boxes, each arriving perfect, on the day you choose — delivered to one office or split across cities.

Client Gifts

A box that speaks for your brand before the lid comes off: your logo, your colours and a note from your leadership.

Festive Gifts

Diwali, Holi, Raksha Bandhan, New Year — planned with you weeks ahead, so the festival week is calm on your side.

“The sweets you give say something about you. We make sure they say the right thing.”

Six sweets, made the long way.

Milk Cake

Milk reduced for hours until its centre turns to toffee and its edges stay pale and grainy.

Kalakand

Fresh chhena and reduced milk, set soft and scattered with pistachio – the most delicate sweet we make.

Malai Barfi

Fresh malai and khoya set into smooth ivory squares, finished with silver varq and pistachio.

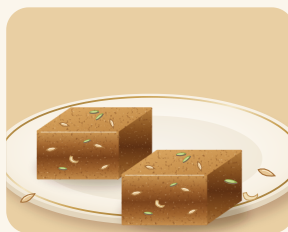

Peda

Khoya roasted slowly in ghee until it turns the colour of old gold, shaped by hand, one at a time.

Kunda

Milk and khoya cooked past the point where most sweetmakers stop – until it turns deep brown and grainy.

Bikaneri Cake

A dense, deeply caramelised milk cake set thick and layered with almonds, cashews and pistachios.

Every sweet is made fresh for your order with full-cream milk, pure desi ghee and premium dry fruits. Kalakand and malai barfi are fresh sweets best enjoyed within days; milk cake, peda, kunda and Bikaneri cake travel well for pan-India delivery.
